

Glimpses of Shia Islam: A Comprehensive Guide to the Beliefs and Practices of Shia Muslims

Shia Islam is one of the two main branches of Islam, the other being Sunni Islam. Shia Muslims believe that Ali ibn Abi Talib, the cousin and son-in-law of the Prophet Muhammad, was the rightful successor to Muhammad as the leader of the Muslim community. Sunni Muslims, on the other hand, believe that Abu Bakr, one of Muhammad's companions, was the rightful successor.

There are a number of differences between Shia and Sunni Islam, including in their beliefs about the nature of God, the role of the Prophet Muhammad, and the authority of the imams. Shia Muslims believe that God is the only true God and that Muhammad was the last prophet sent by God. They also believe that the imams are the rightful leaders of the Muslim community and that they have been given divine authority to interpret the Quran and the Sunnah.
