How to Perform Isti Adha

Isti Adha is performed on the days of Tashreeq, which are the 11th, 12th, and 13th days of Dhul-Hijjah. The ritual is performed at the Jamarat, which are three pillars located in Mina, near Mecca.

To perform Isti Adha, pilgrims collect seven pebbles and throw them at each of the three Jamarat. The pebbles should be thrown with force, and the pilgrim should say the following supplication:

“Allahu Akbar (God is the Greatest)”

After throwing the seven pebbles at each of the three Jamarat, the pilgrim should raise their hands in supplication and pray to Allah for forgiveness and guidance.

The Benefits of Isti Adha

There are many benefits to performing Isti Adha. These benefits include:

- Forgiveness of sins: Isti Adha is a way to seek forgiveness for our sins and to purify our hearts.
